“Forward,” Backward, or Somewhere In Between: Carrying Chaucer in Wisconsin

WEBSITE: https://chauceratwisc.wordpress.com/
Merry Christmas, Every One!

Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan may pursue versions of Scott Walker's Act 10 legislation

JESSIE OPOIEN | The Capital Times | jopoien@madison.com | @jessiepie  7 hrs ago

Trending right now

1. Lawmaker backs off requiring drug testing of students in extracurriculars | Politics
2. Homicide suspect worked company as victims, Madison Crime and Courts | host.mad
3. Employee killed, another 'in her life' in shooting at Madison home | Crime and Cour...
4. DNR breakup plan called...
SECTION 1111. 36.01 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

36.01 (2) The mission of the system is to develop human resources to meet the state's workforce needs, to discover and disseminate knowledge, to extend knowledge and its application beyond the boundaries of its campuses and to serve and stimulate society by developing in students heightened intellectual, cultural, and humane sensitivities, scientific, professional and technological expertise, and a sense of purpose. Inherent in this broad mission are methods of instruction, research, extended training and public service designed to educate people and improve the human condition. Basic to every purpose of the system is the search for truth.
Robin Vos' slam of 'ancient mating habits' research leads to week's most-read story
Ray Cross, president of the University of Wisconsin System, wrote an email saying that tenure should not be a “job for life.”

Lisa H. Cooper: Buggy whip makers is poor metaphor for UW faculty
“Whatever may be the limitations which trammel inquiry elsewhere, we believe that the great State University of Wisconsin should ever encourage that continual and fearless sifting and winnowing by which alone the Truth can be found.” (Taken from a report of the Board of Regents in 1894.)
This bagge doth holde a

RIVERSYDE CHAUCER

The heaviest swyvinge booke yn the worlde